

product description

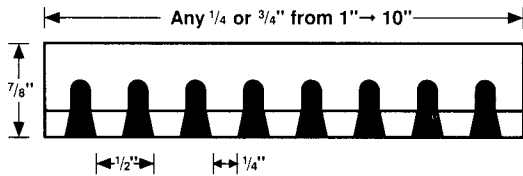

The model FD-AD offers a linear product with the convenience of an access door for controls, valves or maintenance. Made of 6063 extruded aluminum alloy, the unit is available in clear anodized aluminum or a variety of high performance painted finishes. Standard frame widths are 3/4" and 1-1/4".

Blade angles can be specified as 0, 15 or 30 degree with the thickness being 1/4" spaced on 1/2" centers. Access door length is customer specified up to 16" in length.

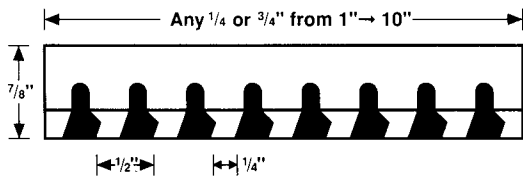

One-piece construction up to 72" with the maximum height being nominal 12".

model LDCO

Bar Grille Core

LDCO-0°

LDCO-15°

LDCO-30°

product description

The model LDCO may be used as a sill grille in existing or new construction. The unit is constructed entirely of 6063 extruded aluminum alloy and available in clear anodized or a variety of high performance painted finishes. The product is designed to have contractor furnished trim cover the perimeter of the opening.

